

MINERS WON'T TAKE THE M'BRYDE SCALE

HOCKING VALLEY OPERATIVES REFUSE TO WORK.

Compromise Is Denounced and the Men Are Determined to Wait For the Outcome of the Second Columbus Conference, Which Will Meet Next Tuesday.

BELLAIR, Ohio, June 16.—Miners have decided not to accept the sixty per cent. compromise scale endorsed by McBryde, and will not return to work until after the second Columbus convention Tuesday. This is a great surprise to those who thought the miners would fall into line for the agreement next Monday and accept its terms. Telegrams have been received from every part of the valley confirming that view. The more important meetings were held at Nelsonville, Longstreth, Orbiston, and New Pittsburgh, where the largest mining interest on the line of the Hocking Valley lay. At these points the miners decided to resume work Monday on the new scale. Many of the dispatches criticize President Adams quite severely for the radical stand he has taken. Reports from Sand Run and Minerton say the men have decided to go to work Monday, and advices from Buchtel and Straitsville are to the same effect.

Gor. McKinley yesterday said concerning the charge that he was recklessly running the state into debt by keeping troops in the field, "We will preserve the peace first and consider the expense afterward." He has, however, ordered the Seventeenth regiment withdrawn. The other troops will be withdrawn in a few days.

COLUMBUS, Ohio, June 16.—John McBride has just made a statement that, being out of money and 4,000 men in Tennessee having deserted, and 10,000 at work elsewhere, he had to throw up the sponge.

STRIKE ENDED AT PITTSBURG.

Miners There Agree to Go to Work Monday at the New Scale.

PITTSBURG, Pa., June 16.—The coal miners strike in this district was officially settled yesterday by a delegate convention ratifying the action taken at Columbus by which the Pittsburgh miners agree to work for 69 cents a ton. In all probability the settlement would have been voted down had not a letter from President McBride been read. He pleaded with them to accept the terms offered as the best that could be secured. He said the union was on the verge of bankruptcy and it would be impossible to continue the fight. A meeting of all railroad coal operators who favor the Columbus settlement has been called for to-day.

BELLE VERNON, Pa., June 16.—The strikers at Brownsville last night decided to return to work at the Columbus agreement. This practically destroys all hope of a continuance of the strike by the Fourth Pool miners.

WHEELING, W. Va., June 16.—The miners of the Panhandle at West Virginia have accepted the Columbus compromise scale.

INDIANA MEN DON'T LIKE IT.

No Satisfaction with Columbus Scale There, in Illinois and Parts of Ohio.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., June 16.—There is reason for saying the vote in miners' state convention to-day will be practically unanimous against going to work at the 60 cents rate.

BRAZIL, Ind., June 16.—A meeting of miners was held in this city yesterday and two delegates, Elmer Miller and Samuel Holden, were selected to attend the state convention at Terre Haute to-day. Vice-President Penna admonished the miners to accept the scale made at the Columbus convention and return to work.

DANVILLE, Ill., June 16.—The miners here are resolved to stay out as long as the strike is a national affair.

STREATOR, June 16.—The miners of Streator and its vicinity decided by an almost unanimous vote to reject the Columbus settlement and to continue the suspension. The men declare they can not live on the wages proposed. A resolution was adopted "that all shafts lie idle until all go to work together." President McBride is expected to be in Coal City to-day and William Lacost was delegated to represent the Streator district at a meeting to be held there.

NEW PHILADELPHIA, Ohio, June 16.—The 600 miners of Barn Hill, Goshen and Stone Creek yesterday decided to continue the strike.

MINERAL POINT, Ohio, June 16.—A joint meeting of miners of Mineral Point and Sherodsville decided not to accept the conditions of the Columbus compromise, but to submit the question to another convention.

SALINEVILLE, Ohio, June 16.—At a meeting of miners here the men decided to refuse to go to work Monday at 60 cents. The men demand the resignation of McBride and advise Adams.

STOPPING TRAINS IN ILLINOIS.

Miners at Mount Olive Determined to Allow No Coal to Be Moved.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 16.—Trouble is feared at Mount Olive again on account of the striking miners, and as a result four United States deputy marshals were sent there with orders to swear in other deputies, and the fifty stands of arms belonging to the state and 1,000 rounds of ammunition sent to Fairfield were forwarded to Mount Olive. Telegrams to Marshal Brinton from his deputies say miners armed with shotguns and clubs have held up every train on the Wabash and Chicago, Peoria and St. Louis road since Brinton returned to Springfield, even the train the deputies were on, and that it is impossible to get men at Mount Olive to serve as deputies, all being in sympathy with the strikers.

LINCOLN, Ill., June 16.—Sheriff Hays and a half dozen deputies have been guarding the Lincoln Coal company's mine in this city since early yesterday, the owners having received word that their property was in danger. It is believed serious trouble will arise unless the strike is settled within a few days.

PANA, Ill., June 16.—A secret circular was passed among the union miners at the populist meeting at Millersville, signed by McBride and other officials of the National Miners' Union at Columbus, directing the miners to remain at Camp Pope until the miners at Pana came out, their supplies to be furnished by the union from Columbus. It is reported the American Railway Union will refuse to carry coal mined by non-union men.

Soothed by a Gatling Gun. MASSILLON, Ohio, June 16.—The prompt arrival of a regiment with a gatling gun had a soothing effect upon the bridge burning miners of Sherodsville and no disorder is reported. At 5:15 last night the burned bridges were restored and trains are again running without interruption on the Wheeling & Lake Erie railway.

BEACH CITY, Ohio, June 16.—Several shots were fired on Company A, Fourteenth regiment, three miles below here last night, and the soldiers returned the fire. No one was injured.

NEW PHILADELPHIA, Ohio, June 16.—Just above Dover a short trestle was fired last night, but it did not burn. A piece of rail was found driven in a frog above this city, near the nail mill. A train of soldiers passed over it, but the train kept the track.

Mobile & Ohio Trouble Settled. ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 16.—The board of arbitration to settle the wage schedule on the Mobile & Ohio, which has been under discussion some time, rendered their report yesterday. They decided upon a reduction of 4 per cent for a period of four months from June 1, 1894, after which the wages existing prior to June 1, 1894, shall be restored for a like period and continued indefinitely thereafter unless sixty days' notice shall be given by either party desiring a change from these conditions. The road will reduce all wages on this basis.

Train Seized in Pennsylvania.

GREENSBURG, Pa., June 16.—A mob of 800 strikers stopped a coal train on the Youngwood branch of the Pennsylvania road last night, and at the point of guns forced the engineer to take the train back to the Strickler mines, whence it started. During the last three days eleven car loads of negroes have been brought into the region, and by Saturday there will be over 3,000 negroes at work.

Torch Applied in Missouri.

BEVERLY, Mo., June 16.—Another attempt was made to burn Mine 48 yesterday morning, and Frank Manning, one of the guards, was shot in the leg by an incendiary. There was a hot fight between the firebugs and the guards who came to Manning's assistance. The incendiaries escaped, and there is evidence that one of them was wounded.

Strikers' Families Starving to Death.

LEXINGTON, Ky., June 16.—Advices from up the Chesapeake & Ohio road are that great destitution exists among the striking miners, their families in some cases starving to death. Dissatisfaction exists among miners in the Peach Orchard mines, which may result in their going out.

Iowa Miners Getting Out Coal.

OTTUMWA, Iowa, June 16.—In consequence of a conference between miners and operators here 200 men returned to work. The officers then left for the Centerville, Mystic and Foster districts, where 1,000 men are out, to adjust the troubles if possible and get men to work.

Striking Cokers Evicted.

UNIONTOWN, Pa., June 16.—Thirty families were evicted at the Trotter coke works yesterday and 100 negroes put into the houses. The operators are issuing eviction papers by the wholesale.

BASEBALL REPORT.

Games Played in the National League Yesterday.

Washington and Chicago, who are furnishing all the excitement in the National league race these days, had their regular see-saw for tenth position yesterday, the senators taking down the prize. No other changes occurred in the relative places of the teams. Games were as follows:

At Washington: Washington.....0 2 1 0 1 2 0 0-6 Chicago.....0 0 0 0 0 1 1 1-4 At Baltimore: Baltimore.....0 5 0 0 4 1 0 3-17 St. Louis.....0 0 0 0 0 1 2 0-3 At Brooklyn: Brooklyn.....1 0 1 5 1 0 1 0-9 Cleveland.....2 2 0 2 0 1 0 1-8 At New York: New York.....3 0 0 0 0 4 0 3-9 Pittsburgh.....0 0 0 0 0 2 0 0-2 At Boston: Boston.....4 0 0 3 0 2 6 0-15 Louisville.....3 3 0 1 0 2 1 0-10 At Philadelphia: Philadelphia.....1 0 0 0 3 0 5 4-21 Cincinnati.....0 1 1 0 0 2 0 4-8

REVIEW OF TRADE NOT VERY BRIGHT.

END OF COAL STRIKE WILL HELP BUSINESS.

Supplies of Fuel Will Enable Manufacturers To Resume—Wheat Only a Fraction Higher—Comparatively Few Failures During the Last Week.

NEW YORK, June 16.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade, says: The strike of bituminous coal-miners will end Monday wherever the authority and advice of their general organization can end it, and there is little room to doubt that the coal famine will then begin to abate. Some time must elapse before supplies of fuel will enable all works to resume that have no other reason for suspending production.

At New York boot and shoe shops have stopped, but shipments from the east are 10 per cent larger for June than last year. The demand is mainly confined to low priced goods, and has recently been more narrow for women's shoes.

The woolen mills are closing rapidly. It is asserted that scarcely any have orders to occupy them beyond July 1 in men's wear, but in the demand for dress goods a somewhat better tone is perceived. The New York and Philadelphia markets are dull, and at Boston a slight decline is seen in prices, with a large sale of territory wool at 30 cents, secured. Western holders appear to be expecting higher prices than can at present be realized in eastern markets. Further concessions have not enlarged the demand for cotton goods, and the recent report that production has been close to last year's is said to be based upon returns from only the more fortunate mills. That goods are accumulating is evident, but sales have been distinctly improved with the weather.

Wheat is only a fraction higher, the exports and ordinary consumption for the year having already exceeded the government estimate of last year's crop by 124,000,000 bushels. Western receipts for the week have been 1,474,401 bushels, against 2,101,074 last year, and Atlantic exports only 508,996 bushels, against 2,229,087 last year. Cotton has yielded a fraction and the report of acreage by the Financial Chronicle indicates an increase of 2.00 per cent, with prospects decidedly more favorable than a year ago.

While business is narrow, it is comparatively free from losses by failure, for the liabilities reported in failures for the first week of June were only $2,507,228, of which $476,119 were of manufacturing and $1,872,261 of trading concerns. The aggregate liabilities thus far reported in failures in May were but $13,514,760, of which $5,146,025 were of manufacturing and $8,912,302 of trading concerns. The number of failures this week has been 332 in the United States against 313 last year, and 40 in Canada against 31 last year.

SENATOR BRICE AND SUGAR.

He Knows Nothing About Campaign Contributions.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Senator Brice was detained longer before the sugar trust investigating committee of the senate than any other of the senators. He reiterated his declaration in his letter to Chairman Gray, in which he had said that he had not bought or sold a single share of sugar stock, or dealt in industrial stocks of any kind. Mr. Brice was very explicit and emphatic in his denial of any knowledge of campaign contributions from the sugar trust.

Senator Hill was questioned in regard to the meeting at the residence of Senator Brice when the sugar questions were discussed. He said that he was present at that time and listened to the Louisiana senator, who explained the sugar duties and told what was needed, but he did not remember seeing Havemeyer there. There was more or less discussion of the sugar schedule by others present and all listened to the Louisiana senators. Senator Hill said he remembered telling Mr. Havemeyer that he was more interested in the income tax than any other feature of the bill.

Coxey and Browne Heard.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—J. S. Coxey and Carle Browne, of the commonweal movement, were granted a hearing by the senate committee on education and labor yesterday advocating their "good roads" bill. They urged the passage of the bill on the ground that if it passed it would provide employment for the idle men of the country. The hearing was not completed and it will be resumed on the 27th inst.

Drouth Broken in Iowa.

DAVENPORT, Iowa, June 16.—The first rain for twenty-six days fell yesterday. The storm was not heavy and this section is still suffering severely from drouth. Reports from other sections of the state, however, show that copious rains have fallen and the drouth is broken.

Postal Employees Warned.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—The post office department is sending to all postal employees copies of an executive order issued by President Cleveland in 1886, warning all officeholders against the use of their official positions in attempts to control local political movements.

HON. T. H. BAYNE DIES BY HIS OWN HAND.

PENNSYLVANIA EX-CONGRESSMAN COMMITS SUICIDE.

Washington the Scene of His Death. Vote on Wool in the Senate Yesterday—Senator Dolph Resumes His Speech—Many Amendments.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Ex-Congressman Thomas H. Bayne of Pennsylvania, suicided this morning. Mr. Bayne had been prominent in legal circles here and in Pennsylvania. He represented the Alleghany district in the house during the Forty-fifth, Forty-sixth, Forty-seventh, Forty-eighth and Forty-ninth sessions.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—In the senate yesterday Stewart secured unanimous consent for the passage of his bill to amend the chapter of the revised statutes relating to mineral lands and mining resources. When the tariff bill was laid before the senate Senator Dolph took the floor and resumed the speech he was making against free wool when the senate adjourned Thursday.

Mr. Carey made a final protest against placing wool on the free list. Mr. Kyle defined his position on the subject of free wool. He had taken little part in the discussion of the tariff bill, he said, but since it had been charged that members of the populist party in the senate were siding with the democracy on this question at the expense of the people of their states he would make a statement. Speaking for himself alone he was not afraid of placing wool on the free list. The advantage that would accrue to the farmer from the reduction of the price of clothing he thought would more than compensate for any reduction in the price of wool that might follow the free-listing of that product. Mr. Kyle read numerous letters from sheep-growers in the Dakotas and other states of the Northwest advocating free trade.

A discussion followed in which Messrs. Morrill, Cullom, Vest, Sherman and Aldrich took part.

The first vote was taken at 3 o'clock upon Mr. Teller's motion to restore the McKinley rate on wool. Lost—29 to 37—a party vote, Stewart voting yea and Peffer and the other populists nay.

Senator Power offered an amendment changing the McKinley rate of 11 cents to 7 cents and the McKinley rate of 12 cents to 8 cents. There were no changes from the previous vote, the amendment being defeated 29-37. Mr. Peffer voted with the democrats.

On Senator Peffer's amendment, as modified by himself, the vote resulted: Yeas, 33; nays, 35. Senator Hill refrained from voting and Messrs. Allen of Nebraska, Peffer, Kyle and Stewart voted aye.

An amendment was then sent to the clerk's desk and read increasing from 15 per cent, as it is now in the bill, to 30 per cent the duty on wool in the form of stubbing, waste, mungo, shoddy, nolls or other waste product. The Vice-President announced that it was offered by Mr. Sherman. Lost, 29 to 34.

Mr. Peffer then offered an amendment to place all articles of manufactures composed wholly or in part of wool, hair of the goat, camel, or alpaca on the free list.

After some discussion of this amendment at 6 o'clock on Mr. Cockrell's motion the bill providing for the deficiency in the appropriations for the government printing office was passed, and then the senate went into executive session, and ten minutes later adjourned.

A CURRENCY COMMISSION.

Messrs. Jordan and Trenchum Before the House Banking Committee.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Sub-treasurer Jordan of New York, and ex-comptroller of the Currency W. L. Trenchum, who are the authors of a bill introduced by Representative Coombs for the creation of a currency commission, spoke in support of that plan before the house committee on banking and currency to-day. Their plan is for a non-partisan commission of fifteen members, representing different sections, and not more than seven of them bankers, who shall sit in different cities to investigate the currency system and financial conditions and report at the close of this year their findings regarding coinage and currency. The committee elected five members to prepare a currency and banking measure to be reported June Refr. sentatives of the Roads Say They Cannot Accept the Measure.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Representatives of the Pacific railroads now in this city say that the companies will not accept the proposition in the modified bill providing that the interest on the funded debts shall be 3 per cent and shall not run more than fifty years. They claim that the companies could not pay such interest and make the payments provided for in the bill. They say it is not a question of refusing to accept the bill but that it will be a clear case of inability to make the payments. The roads, they say, will not be able to earn as much in the future as in the past. There is now so much competition that they will be compelled to fight for traffic which, when the roads were first built, came as a matter of course.

Proceedings of the House.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—The Indian appropriation bill was again considered in the house yesterday and a rule adopted to bring it to a vote to-day. The section of the bill providing for the sale of certain state bonds credited to the Indian trust funds was struck out on a point of order after a sharp debate. A recess was taken till 8 o'clock this evening, the session being devoted to private pension bills.

Frauds in Armor-Plate Reports.

WASHINGTON, June 16.—Informers continued his story of armor-plate frauds before the investigating committee yesterday. It was mainly a detailed and technical elaboration of the frauds which he had explained in a general way Thursday. The tedious process of identifying each false entry proceeded throughout the morning and part of the afternoon.

CHINA'S TREATY WITH MEXICO.

Ambassador Is Appointed for Its Ratification.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., June 17.—Lai Young Loi, formerly Chinese consul-general at this city, is in receipt from the foreign office of the emperor of China of notice of his appointment as ambassador with full power to ratify the treaty between China and Mexico. The treaty provides that the Chinese residents of Mexico shall have the right of becoming naturalized citizens and in so doing have all the rights that belong to the native-born citizens. There will be no laws of registration or exclusion. In all matters of commerce the Chinese will be permitted to enjoy the same privileges granted to all other foreign nations. In fact, in all things they are to be treated alike. For the return of all these favors to be enjoyed by the Chinese who settle in Mexico the Chinese government will extend the same privileges and courtesies to Mexicans who may go to China and engage in commerce in that country. The treaty is liberal in every respect, and no favored nation could ask for more.

Funds of the Iron Hall.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., June 16.—Judge Winters decided that all the claims filed by Receiver Failey in the Iron Hall case for sick benefits and claims upon warrants drawn but not paid for sick benefits are not preferred claims and should not be paid. He holds the members filing them shall receive such dividends as have been declared on the amounts which they have paid in on assessments. This decision disposes of about 300 claims.

North Dakota Populist Ticket.

JAMESTOWN, N. D., June 16.—Walter Muir of Cass county was nominated for congress by the state independent convention yesterday without opposition. The platform favors free and unlimited coinage of gold and silver at the ratio of 16 to 1, supplemented by government notes exclusively until the volume of currency reaches $50 per capita; favors government ownership of railroads and telegraphs; reduction in state expenses in every department; the initiative and referendum and the strict enforcement of all state laws without discrimination. The resolutions approve female suffrage and the penalty clause in the prohibition law. The platform contains nothing on prohibition, although a strong sentiment favored indorsement of it. The full ticket is as follows: Governor, Ed-ward Wallace; lieutenant-governor, L. R. Ueland; secretary of state, G. B. Sleete; attorney-general, W. H. Standish; auditor, A. W. Porter; superintendent of schools, Laura Eismenheren; insurance commissioner, James Cudahie; commissioner of agriculture, Dr. Merchant; railroad commissioners, T. W. Connolly, Peter Cameron, Ben E. Stevens; supreme judge, George Nelson; congressman-at-large, Walter Muir.

May Be Editor John J. Ingalls.

TORONTO, Kan., June 16.—John J. Ingalls has received an offer to become editor-in-chief of an important magazine published in New York. He will leave for that place to-morrow to confer with the management.

Erastus Wiman Found Guilty.

NEW YORK, June 16.—Erastus Wiman has been found guilty of forgery in the second degree. The maximum penalty for the offense is ten years at hard labor in state prison. The jury also brought in a recommendation to mercy. A new trial will be asked for.

Good Rains in Illinois.

GALENA, Ill., June 16.—The drouth in this vicinity was broken yesterday by a thunder storm of moderate rainfall lasting half an hour. The rain was general throughout the state and crops are much improved.

Kelly at Evansville, Ind.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., June 16.—The Kelly commonweal navy has arrived here, 1,100 strong, and expects to get away through public subscription.

William Walter Phelps Resting Easily.

ENGLWOOD, N. J., June 16.—At midnight Mr. Phelps was resting easily. Dr. Currie thought that there was no immediate danger of death.

BULLET FOR CRISPI MISSES ITS MARK.

AN ATTEMPT TO MURDER THE ITALIAN PREMIER.

Pistol Fired at Him as He Is on His Way to the Chamber This Morning—The Premier Jumps From His Carriage and Grapples with His Antagonist.

ROME, June 16.—A man fired at Premier Crispi this morning as the prime minister was driving to the chamber in a carriage. The premier was not hit. He jumped from his carriage and held the man until police arrived.

The Colonial Conference.

LONDON, June 16.—In the house of commons Mr. Buxton has announced that the earl of Jersey was not empowered to bind the government or to speak in its behalf at the colonial conference at Ottawa.

Sulphur Strike Being Settled.

PALERMO, June 16.—The dispute between the owners of the sulphur mines in the vicinity of Caltanizetta, which resulted in the strike of 3,000 men a few days ago, is being settled by a compromise.

Cholera Report in Austria.

VIENNA, June 16.—There have been sixty cases of cholera and twenty-five deaths at Ciechanowice, Russian Poland, thirty miles from the Prussian frontier.

ACTS ON THE STRIKE.

American Railway Union Asks Pullman to Settle.

CHICAGO, June 16.—The convention of the American Railway Union yesterday took up the matter of the Pullman strike and decided to take immediate action. A committee was appointed to wait upon the officials of the Pullman Palace Car company for the purpose of demanding in the name of the American Railway Union an immediate settlement of the differences existing at Pullman. The company received the committee courteously, but declared they had nothing to arbitrate. It is probable that extreme measures may now be taken by the laboring element. A boycott of Pullman cars on all railroad lines may be ordered and union men will refuse to handle them.

By adopting the report of the committee on general work the convention decided to take no action in relation to the coal miners' strike on the ground that it was impracticable, as the order was not well enough organized.

The committee on resolutions reported in favor of indorsing the boycott of the Chicago Typographical unions against the Rand-McNally company. Its recommendation was adopted. The boycott of the Peggers' and Nailers' union of Minneapolis against the Washburn-Crosby Milling company's flour was also indorsed. The convention adjourned at 5 o'clock to resume business this morning.

WILL NOT INTERFERE.

Illinois Apportionment Cases Decided by Supreme Court.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., June 16.—The Supreme court has decided the two senatorial apportionment cases of Fletcher vs. Tuttle, county clerk of Vermillion county, and Blair vs. Hinrichsen, secretary of state. The decision affirms the judgments of the circuit courts of Vermillion and Sangamon counties, where the cases originated, and dismisses the bills for want of equity jurisdiction. The decision was unanimous and sustains the position taken by Judge Moran, who made the principal oral argument for the appellees before the Supreme court.

FIRE AT SOUTH BEND.

Studebaker Wagon Factory Is Partly Destroyed Yesterday Morning.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., June 16.—At 12:20 o'clock fire broke out in the boiler house of the Studebaker wagon works, and, communicating to the four-story dry kiln, did damage to the amount of about $5,000. The roof and fourth floor of the dry kiln were burned off and the third floor damaged. The iron roof of the boiler house prevented a further spread of the flames. The shoving-collecting system of the wagon works was destroyed and will cause a suspension of operations for two or three weeks. The loss is covered by insurance.

Resumes Train Service from Cent.

TACOMA, Wash., June 16.—The Northern Pacific has established through connections with St. Paul by way of the Ceur d'Alene branch, trains to be run over the Union Pacific branch from Spokane to Wallace, Idaho.

Good Rains in Illinois.

GALENA, Ill., June 16.—The drouth in this vicinity was broken yesterday by a thunder storm of moderate rainfall lasting half an hour. The rain was general throughout the state and crops are much improved.

Kelly at Evansville, Ind.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., June 16.—The Kelly commonweal navy has arrived here, 1,100 strong, and expects to get away through public subscription.

William Walter Phelps Resting Easily.

ENGLWOOD, N. J., June 16.—At midnight Mr. Phelps was resting easily. Dr. Currie thought that there was no immediate danger of death.

IN ENDLESS NIGHT THEIR PATH RUNS.

COMMENCEMENT DAY AT THE SCHOOL FOR THE BLIND.

Remarkable Work Has Been Done During the Last Year by the Pupils Whose Eyes Are Forever Closed—College Scholarships Are Called For.

The school for the blind closes its annual session Monday evening. The showing made on graduation day will be an interesting one. Superintendent Pease has put all his energy into the work of the school. He says:

"I remember when a boy, meeting a blind man. I shut my eyes and gazed my way about, wondering how it would seem to go through life in total darkness. My imagination soon built up such terrible sensations that I opened my eyes, and the feeling of relief was so great that I have never forgotten the experience."

"I think most people will agree with me, that if the state could give any instruction that would tend in the least to relieve such a sad condition as blindness imposes, the people would gladly contribute all the necessary funds. But the Wisconsin school is doing this and a great deal more. It is the determined purpose of the management to afford such instruction that the pupils who are educated there will be given the means of supporting themselves by their own work when they leave school (and surely the progress the school is making would indicate a reasonable success in this direction). One of the fundamental thoughts constantly taught by the school is that blind people must keep themselves independent; that they must not yield to a tempting dependence upon other people's charity, when they can support themselves."

The school is really a part of the common school system of the state. A visitor will find a kindergarten with sixteen boys and girls working away just as independently at the clay work or paper cutting and folding with the kindergarten gifts or reading and writing; and, what is so surprising, just as happy as the children in any kindergarten he may ever have visited.

No Melancholy Pupils There

The school for the blind is not a melancholy place. If you go there in the winter, wait until recess and listen to the boys and girls swarm out of the school rooms and race off to the hill for a coast, for sliding down hill is one of their best amusements. Along the hill you will find snow men, forts, etc., and all indications of the snow sports usual in any school.

Last season the boys rolled a very large ball and trimmed down the sides until it looked like a large wheel. This they called the Ferris wheel.

In the summer the pupils play a modified form of football, croquet, shinney, and various other outdoor games.

There is but little gloom in the manner of the pupils. They are active, energetic and ambitious, the same as children who have sight. You can find them earnestly discussing their plans for the future, or walking about the grounds, chatting and laughing merrily over each other's jokes.

Music is a source of great delight to all, and also one of the most profitable courses of instruction. All the pupils receive daily lessons in singing, over fifty received lessons on piano, organ or violin during the past year. The orchestra, under the leadership of Mrs. J. H. Jones, who has devoted herself to the work for several years, has a reputation of being one of the most talented musical organizations in southern Wisconsin. Many blind people become excellent music teachers, and this instruction gives those who have this necessary talent one of the most profitable vocations open to blind people.

College Scholarships Needed.

However, the main work of the school is its literary department, wherein the mental powers are most developed. In a purely handicraft business, there is so much competition with machinery and seeing workmen, that the blind man works at a great disadvantage. But if he can take his place in the professional ranks, it needs only the requisite education to assure him of independence.

After promotion from the kindergarten, the school offers a good high school education, and makes it possible for the pupil to continue his education in college if he can secure the necessary funds.

If any wealthy people are looking for a practical charity in which to interest themselves, they can soon accomplish their wish by establishing scholarships at the University for some of the graduates of this school, who could soon make a reputation among professional men, and be able to return the money loaned to them.

All the pupils receive a certain amount of manual training. The boys are taught to make hammocks, fly nets, fish nets, etc., and to cane chairs. The girls are instructed in house keeping and all kinds of sewing, knitting, etc. One of the new features in the school is a course in dress-making, wherein the girls are taught to make all their own clothing. This year over twenty dresses, besides a large number of pieces of other clothing, were cut, fitted, and made by the girls in these classes.

Cooking Lessons An Especial Feature.

Instruction in cooking for blind girls has been developed in this house-keeping feature of the girls' instruction. The Wisconsin school has been a pioneer in this work, and consequently has attracted considerable attention in other states by its success in this work. As an attainment by itself, it is probably of the least importance of any of the work in the school. It is not expected that it will be of any more practical value than to assist these girls in becoming helpful members of their homes, at the same time, establishing the fact that a blind girl can break eggs and separate the white and yelks as skillfully as any house wife, will teach most people that they must not be skeptical about the things blind people can do. In these cooking classes, totally blind girls have made all kinds of bread and cake, prepared and cooked meats and vegetables in greater variety than is customary in the usual home.

The trades at present taught are carpet weaving, broom and hammock making, and piano tuning. The display of rag carpets made at the World's Fair was unequalled by any other exhibit. The exhibit in sewing, knitting, etc., received the medal. The school will make a display of this work at the state fair this fall, and you need not be surprised to have a blind girl bear away some of the premiums.

Will Equal Schools in Any State.

The school is an institution in which citizens of this state may take considerable pride. If it continues at its present rate of progress, it will not be many years before it will rank successfully with the best of the schools for the blind in other states. It has an excellent staff of teachers, thoroughly devoted to their work, which requires infinite patience, combined with unusual ability. It has been thoroughly demonstrated that it is cheaper to educate blind children than to leave them dependent upon charity, so that the work is removed from the realm of charity into that of practical investment. With this thought in mind, the last legislature made some liberal appropriations, which have enabled the management to increase the efficiency of the work and make several needed improvements. The necessity of the school is well indicated by the fact that this year there has been an average attendance of 113 pupils. It is estimated that there are over 200 children in the state who should be in the school, but are not because the parents have not learned that the state is maintaining a free school for the education of their children.

LOVEJOY HEARS OF THREE VOTERS

All the Republicans in the State Are Not Candidates

Ex-Senator A. P. Lovejoy left his autograph on the Pfister hotel register. "There are a good many republican politicians around the Pfister, and some of them are working hard," said Rock county's ex-senator. "I learned one thing while I was in the hotel corridor. All the politicians admit that there are at least three more voters than there are candidates in Wisconsin, and the candidates are all trying to find who the three are. I met Hed Taylor while in Milwaukee. In the morning Hed's friends addressed him as 'governor,' and after dinner the very same man addressed me as 'Governor Lovejoy.' They are having a warm time in there."

A Wonderful Invention.

The latest and most remarkable improvement in food products is the new Borden's Baking Powder, which has attained such enormous sales in this vicinity during the past few months, and which promises to displace the old fashioned kinds because of the greatly superior results obtained by its use. This powder excels in three important particulars, viz: baking strength, healthfulness and purity. One and-a-half teaspoonsful will produce better results than two full teaspoonsful of the best of other kinds. All other baking powders are composed of either alum or cream of tartar, both of which leave a physic in the bread, while this powder is strictly a pure phosphate powder, and is of itself a natural healthful article of food, beneficial to all. Every ingredient is strictly pure. It contains no alum, cream tartar or ammonia.

ALUMNI TELL TALES OUT OF SCHOOL.

AND BID THE CLASS OF '94 HEARTY WELCOME.

Boys and Girls of the Sixties Review Their Youth in Fraternizing with the Classes of Thirty Years Later—Graceful Address Delivered by the President

The colors of '94 were adopted by the High School Alumni association for the reception last night. Columbia hall was never prettier than with yellow and white drapings about the walls and with a yellow and white corner of exceptional beauty reserved for the newly admitted class. Mrs. M. L. Beers, in her presidential address was most happy. It was only in closing that she turned retrospectively, for a moment, and said: "We who stand at the head of the line feel that every year we are a little closer to the shadows that fall from the sunset crowned hills. But we must come out from the shadows tonight and tell our stories, and be boys and girls at yore."

Mrs. Beers' introductions of the various speakers and singers came in verse—verse that was pointed as well as graceful. Those she called upon were Fred L. Clemons for a welcome to the class of '94; Frank W. Vankirk for a response; Miss Rose Hathorn for a piano solo; Miss Marie Wilcox, for a song, "Twins April"; Miss Maude Fuller for a reading; Ed. R. Hayward for a violin solo, and S. C. Burnham for "Old Time Stories of Old Time Boys and Girls." Miss Fuller chose as her number a poem on Tennyson written by E. Woodman ('58) now secretary of the Chicago, Milwaukee, St. Paul & Omaha railway. S. C. Burnham joked and chatted about the high school boys and girls of the sixties, and then read bits from a Janesville Gazette of 1859, giving Mrs. Beers' graduation essay, an address by Judge Armstrong and Warren D. Parker's valedictory.

Professor Charles Hutchins, who was superintendent here in the sixties, was present, and Mrs. Beers called him out for a few remarks. He supplemented the stories told by Mr. Burnham and dropped a hint or two for the benefit of the younger members of the association. A letter from Professor William Lawrence of Chicago, another old principal was read, and the school for the blind orchestra, which had opened the evening's programme delighted the audience with another number. The orchestra was under the leadership of Mrs. M. D. Jones and never has it played with more spirit. Each number was loudly applauded.

Long tables surrounded the room and here cream and cake were served. The alumni formed by classes marched around the room. Mrs. Beers, of '59 and Mrs. C. S. Jackson, of '60 headed the line. In the center of the hall a table was spread for the class of '94. From this table Harry Shaw, van's lively class chorus sounded after the refreshments had been duly discussed. It was warmly applauded.

Some of the younger people took advantage of the enticing music after the tables had been cleared away, and an impromptu dance was organized. It lasted until midnight, those who didn't care to wait spending the time quite as enjoyably in calling up school day memories.

PROF. BORDEN URGED TO STAY

Many in Milton Junction Anxious to Have Him Remain as Superintendent

MILTON JUNCTION, June 15.—Prof. Borden resigned his position in the high school here a short time ago. It is believed he might be induced to take the school another year, however, if the salary were satisfactory. Some of the high school students will feel very badly if Prof. Borden does not stay another year. He is well liked by everyone and the school holds a high place among the schools of the state. Messrs. Swaney and Ainsley, who keep a billiard hall in the old bakery were before Justice Clarke at Milton, charged with selling liquor without a license. The cases were continued for two weeks. The district convention of the Good Templars will meet in Milton Junction June 21 and 22 instead of June 23, as I wrote in my last letter. Dr. Maxson has gone to Milwaukee for a day or two and has left his patients in the care of Dr. Justin Burdick, of Milton. Mrs. Livingston started for Minnesota on a visit Monday. Bert Button has bought a lot of Charlie Clarke, north of Mr. Clarke's house, and will immediately build a fine residence. Charlie Ogden is excavating for the cellar, and stone is being drawn. Architect Kemp, of Janesville, has the job of erecting the building. Rev. Simmons will give a discourse next Sunday evening about the "Latter Day Saints." Druggist Arthur McClafferty is quite sick with symptoms of typhoid fever. Dr. Oviatte, the health officer, placed the red flag on the house, although the attending physician has not pronounced it typhoid fever to a certainty. Rev. G. W. Burdick started for Dodge Center, Minn., Wednesday morning. Deacon W. B. West left Wednesday night to attend the association of the Seventh Day Baptist churches of the northwest. We are glad to note that all charges of damages against this town have been settled, the last by paying the Sprague-Shuman claim, $300 and Sheriff Bear of $43. Next? The Good Templars are to present a play to the public next Wednesday night, for the benefit of district work. It is a farce entitled "Wide Enough for Two" Admission ten and twenty cents. Israel Kelly has been detained at home all the week with rheumatism in his hip. Mrs. Clyde Price has gone to visit her sister in Oshkosh. Charles Clarke is having his house newly painted. S. R. Titus, of Beloit, was in town one day this week. Will Gata is in Sauk county on business. Mr. Underwood and Mr. McIntyre of Edgerton were in town Tuesday. J. Gage has a painter at work brightening up the woodwork in the hotel. A. S. Jones and wife returned to Clinton Thursday. Mrs. A. S. Maxon returned from her visit in Missouri a few days ago. The many friends of Rev. George W. Hills, a former pastor of this place will be pained to hear that he is seriously ill at Altalia Ala.

GENERAL JOSEPH B. DOE.

[DEDICATED TO MRS. J. B. DOE.] There was a baby born in Janesville some years ago; As bright a one to see as you'd ever wish to know; He grew another babies do, with a mother dear to watch him; He scrambled out of baby clothes, and pants he then was put in. When in school he took his seat, 'twas noticed by his teacher That he was very wise indeed; she thought he'd make a preacher. Time went on; the boy he grew, and the prize he always won; He had time for all his lessons, and a little left for fun. He never told quite all he knew, but kept it all in store; And as the years went gliding by he added something more; Until at last it all crept out, 'he was a rising star.' With glorious future, he had carved, that nothing now could mar. When he spoke in public, and this he often did He was noticed by the people, not a word was missed, not one Congratulations many were extended every time. To this bright man from Janesville, who was only twenty-nine. Years went by, and still he rose, upward was his aim; He would not stop until he reached everlasting fame. With envy, jealousy and strife the people tried to hurt him But he worked the harder for the prize he wished to win. His struggles now are over, and away to Washington, He's gone—our "gallant general," who was a loving son. That he will nobly fill the place, fears we haven't any, And we wish for him "success," we his friends, and they are many.

CHIPS FROM NEAR-BY TOWNS.

Mrs. Lemuel and a Leaky Can. Mrs. John Lemuel, of Evansville, lit her gasoline stove, preparatory to getting dinner Tuesday, when the oil can caught fire and blazed to the ceiling. Neighbors endeavored to extinguish the flame with wet carpets, but this only seemed to make it burn brighter, and stove and house finally had to be pulled away from one another.

FAST HORSE TRAIN GOT HERE TO-DAY.

FIFTY FLYERS FROM FREE PORT REACH TOWN.

Dust Will Fly on the Fair Ground Track—Racing Begins Tuesday Afternoon, But There Will Be No Lack of Fast Miles Before That Time.

There was more than the usual life around the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul freight depot this morning. Every drayman in the city was around the platform, loading sulkies and horse furnishings. Fifteen car loads of horses had just arrived from Freeport to take part in the races at the Janesville Driving park next week. Every owner wanted his horses out first, and Agent Johnson was using his best efforts and a switch engine to accommodate all. Quick work was made in unloading the stock, and quite a good sized cavalcade moved to the park. It took more time, however, to unload the baggage of the aggregation, the draymen being busy for several hours.

Horses That Are Going Fast.

If the Freeport races are any criterion—and many horses that are there this week will be here next—Janesville is going to have a great meeting. The surprise of the day at that town Thursday was the distancing of M. E. McHenry's Judge Walker in the '30 class. The horse can go in in '25 but acted badly and got the flag in 29½. He was the favorite in the race Judge Walker is entered in the '37 class here as is also Hillberry, who won the Freeport purse after McHenry was shut out. Niobe St. Cloud entered in the '32 class here, got second money, J. C. L. in the same class got third and Nancy Wilson, entered in the '37 class here, fourth money. Helen, also entered in that class here was outside the money.

Pennington Went in 2:19 3-4

Harry Pennington, entered in the 2:28 class here won the Freeport '25 class the best time being 2:19½. Maud Wright, who will trot in the '24 class here got second money; Prince, also in the Janesville '24 class, third and Alice Berlew, in the same class fourth. Jennie Tombs, Minnie Monroe and Kolena, all of whom will compete here, were the non winners of the party.

Dave R., J. S. Hutson's gray pacer, made a good showing at Freeport, winning the first heat of the '25 pacing race in 1:47. After that came Onward, took three straight. Dave R. is entered here in the '22 pacing class as is also Carrie Onward. Tommy Russell, who is in the same class here got third money and Robert Elsmere fourth. Elsmere, and Hermie are both entered here, the latter being the fifth horse in the first heat and then getting shut out.

S. D. CONANT LEADS THE Y. M. C. A.

The Greatest Work in the World Will Be the Subject of Discussion.

The men's mass meeting at the Y. M. C. A. rooms to-morrow afternoon at 3 o'clock, will undoubtedly be profitable to all who accept the invitation for men of all nationalities, young and old, to be present. S. D. Conant will lead, his subject being "The Greatest Work in the World." The singing is always interesting. Last Sunday afternoon seventy-eight young men were present, and the harmony, together with the blending of their voices in song, was uplifting for any man. Remember the time, from 3 to 4 Sunday afternoon.

No person will be allowed extra votes for stopping his paper and having it sent to another name at the same address.

In every instance they must be bona fide new subscribers.

Could anything be fairer? The Gazette wants subscribers. The Shaw piano is seeking friends. Let us rally our energies and make the closing days ring with hurrahs for the favorites.

A POSTPONED PROPOSAL.

The Lady Made the Mistake of Becoming too Womanly.

"I always like to talk to you, Sophronia," said the youth with a beetling brow and a touch of the dyspepsia. "I always like to talk to you, because, unlike other women, you have a soul above the mere frivolity of dress. You prefer to converse on philanthropy and poetry rather than dwell on ribbons and laces and dress patterns."

"I am sure you flatter me, Mr. Gushington," said Sophronia, as a beautiful blush suffused her features precisely at the right time. "but the compliment, coming from you, is highly appreciated," and she put such a sweet emphasis upon "you" that Mr. Gushington's courage was almost raised to the point of asking the question he had been trying to ask for over a year.

"Yes," he continued, in even a tender tone, "you are one of the very few women whose mind is fixed on higher things than raiment. Indeed, you and Miss Wordy, the great female lecturer on archaeology, are the only women I know who are absorbed in higher things than dress. By the way, I want to see her the other evening. She is a magnificent woman, and as she stood up in all her intellectual dignity before her audience, I was profoundly impressed with her individuality."

"Do tell me about it?" said Miss Sophronia. "How did she wear her hair and what did she have on?"

Mr. Gushington once again postponed his great question, staggered out under the cold moonlight and mechanically wended his way to his lonely home.—Chicago Herald.

Adjusting a Fire Loss.

An instance of unusual cost of adjusting a fire loss comes from Springfield, N. Y. Last February a stock of groceries was burned and a damage claim for $8,500 presented. Seven adjusters and special agents finally adjusted it at $8,426, or $74 less than the claim. The expense of this adjustment is given at $350 or four per cent of the entire amount of the claim.

THE ACME OF VULGARITY.

That Is What a Soiled Silk Is, According to Judic Chollet.

Skirts with separate linings have returned to replace those in which the lining is sewed in with the seams, as has been the custom for two or three years past. Sometimes the separate lining is made in the form of a distinct skirt, which, when made of silk and prettily trimmed, may be worn with a number of different gowns. It should be as full as the outer dress itself and as carefully fitted. Black is the most generally serviceable. It is a mistake to wear a white silk petticoat except under evening dress, for one hour's wear under a street gown will destroy its beauty and freshness forever, and soiled silk is the acme of vulgarity. Muslin and cambric petticoats are the only admissible white ones for ordinary wear, since they alone can be changed frequently and laundered successfully.

Muslin skirts and other underwear are sold at such low prices now that there is no excuse for any woman who has not an ample supply of such garments. It is not essential that they be of fine material or elaborately trimmed, although even the least expensive articles have usually some sort of ornamentation. The main thing is to have plenty of them, keep them in good order and have them well laundered.

Many wealthy women inclined to plumpness buy the plainest underclothing to be found in order to avoid the fluff and fullness that would be caused by trimming. Hand embroidered French goods of extremely plain cut may be obtained at a moderate price and are often worn by large women who prefer some sort of decoration to a perfectly plain finish.

Some of the new articles of neckwear are really charming in effect. One lately seen consisted of a finely jetted round yoke with a standing collar and black gauze. The lower edge of the yoke was cut in several large points and bordered with a full double frill of the satin striped gauze, very finely plaited. Black mousseline de sole, crepe de chine and other thin black goods are much employed for these becoming adjuncts and are often combined with tinted or white lace.

A sketch is given of a vest of gold colored satin trimmed with black guipure. The upper part is plaited into the standing collar, and the material is so shaped as to fall in coquilles. The lower part is confined by corselet pieces of guipure. The middle of the front and the collar are trimmed with narrow guipure.

JUDIC CHOLLET.

THE HAPPY PARIS GIRL.

Her Gowns Cost Only Half as Much as the American Woman's.

It is astonishing to note the difference in price between ready made garments here and abroad. What would seem a very moderate allowance in America will dress a woman well and fashionably in Paris, provided she purchases her apparel already made up and has it altered to suit her figure. The fitter in a Parisian shop can do this to perfection, so that the gown looks as if it were made to order, and the charges are very moderate compared with those to which we are accustomed here.

There is one objection to ready made garments that holds good everywhere—that is, somebody else is sure to have something similar—but as the ambition of a great many women is to "look like other people" this is evidently not universally considered a drawback. Besides a Parisian woman is very clever at adding a bow here and a bit of lace there, which, although but the work of a moment, gives her gown an individuality and distinguishes it as being personal to herself, for no two women will make exactly the same changes or add touches of just the same color.

An American woman who wishes to appear trim and fashionable expects to pay at least $25 for a neat and well made woolen street costume prettily trimmed and altered to fit her. In Paris a walking gown of about the same grade may be obtained for half the money, while evening dresses are equally reasonable in price. It is quite as possible to spend a great deal of money for a gown there as here, but it is not as necessary. Famous Parisian modistes and tailors charge tremendously, but one can dress very well there without employing them, while here a good dressmaker is a rarity at any except an extravagant price.

An illustration is given of a gown of old rose china silk flowered with black. The bottom of the plain skirt has a narrow ruffle of black gauze headed by a scarf trimming of silk held in place by guipure straps. The round bodice is gathered in at the waist under a pointed girle of black gauze, closing with such ends at the side. Figaro jacket fronts of white guipure trim the corsage, and the bouffant elbow sleeves terminate in a flounce of guipure. The hat is of gold colored straw trimmed with white lace wings and pink flowers.

HARPER'S HISTORY OF THE WAR

Harper's Pictorial History is universally recognized as the best history of the war yet published. This superb work has never been sold for less than $16 to $30. It has been sold only by subscription and but a very few men have been able to buy it.

The pages are the same size as Harper's Weekly and the work contains all the illustrations appearing in that great paper during the war. The work was edited by Richard Grant White and Henry M. Alden and is authentic, complete and reliable.

We have made arrangements whereby we can furnish Gazette subscribers with this splendid history of twenty-six parts at ten cents a part. These twenty-six parts will contain over one thousand war pictures and will make two handsome volumes when bound.

Many official documents of priceless historic value are quoted in full in the copious foot notes, such for instance as Lincoln's inauguration speeches, articles of federation of the early states, constitution of the United States, ordinance of secession, and many important papers, speeches, etc. The war story is consecutive and very fascinating. The introductory chapters, leading up to the struggle, and the chapter on the reconstruction period, are by some of the first writers of the age.

Born, Not Made

Weak by imprudence, are many stomachs. Puny people have invariably weak digestion. The robust as a rule eat heartily and assimilate their food. A naturally weak stomach, or one that has become, although not so originally, derives needful aid from this thorough stomachic, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The restoration of vigor to the delicate is the prompt effect of a resource to this professionally sanctioned and universally esteemed promoter of health. Nervousness—a symptom of chronic indigestion—is overcome by it. So are liver complaint and constipation. Incipient rheumatism and kidney trouble it defeats thoroughly, and it constitutes an efficient defense against malaria. But in order that the full benefit derivable from its use should be available, it should not be used in a haphazard way, but continually. The same suggestion holds good of all standard remedies.

SENATORIAL CONVENTION.

A republican convention in and for the Seventeenth senatorial district, will be held at Brodhead on Tuesday, the fourth day of September, 1894, at 11 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of re-nominating a candidate for state senator and for the transaction of such other business as may properly come before the convention. Each voting precinct in the district, will be entitled to one delegate in the convention.

HANS QUALE, Committee.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY

956—Hugo the Great, father of Hugh Capet, who began the third series of French kings, died.

1236—Edward I of England ("Longshanks") born; died 1307.

1815—Napoleon defeated Blucher at Ligny, and the allies defeated Ney at Quatre Bras, both preparatory to Waterloo.

1860—The steamer Griffith burned on Lake Ontario; 236 lives lost.

1857—Etelka Gerster, famous singer, born at Kaschau, Hungary.

1866—Prussia set her armies in motion, and the single campaign war with Austria began.

1883—Appalling accident caused by a crush at Victoria hall, Sunderland, England; 182 children killed.

1886—Edwin Percy Whipple, author, died in Boston; born 1819.

1890—Mine under imperial palace at Gatchina discovered just in time to save the Russian royal family.

1892—Tornado struck train in Wisconsin, killing several people. Lightning struck Grant statue at Chicago, killing 3 people.

ANOTHER BREACH IN THE WALL.

Maryland, too, appears to be headed for the republican column. The leading democratic paper in the state, the Baltimore "Sun," in the course of a long article denounces the present democratic machinery, and says it needs "a thorough cleaning and overhauling." Unless this is done it predicts for the party next November an "overwhelming and crushing defeat."

It finds "democratic treason in the senate and boss rule and ring rule at home," and gives a vigorous statement of the situation to support these views.

Gorman's subterranean application of soft soap will hardly save him in his own state this year.

Late advices from Hawaii say the friends of the ex-queen are still waiting for Mr. Cleveland to set up the old throne again. Well, if they can get any satisfaction out of waiting they are just that much ahead of Mr. Cleveland.

It is said that as soon as Mr. Benedict gets the last republican out of the government printing office he will recommend that the establishment be put under the civil service law, in order to keep the democrats in.

The seventeen year locusts have appeared, but they are comparatively harmless this year. The locusts will not try to compete with the democratic party in the destructive line.

If there were more honest and fearless newspapers in the far southern states the administration would not be able to control them as easily as it does.

That senate investigating committee handles its witness as if it were awfully afraid that they might tell something about the sugar scandal.

Whatever else may be said of him it cannot be denied that Croker, the ex-Tammany boss, is an expert in selecting the time to disappear.

If there were better men in congress the atmosphere in the capitol, about which complaint has been made, might be more wholesome.

The senator who will not prove himself innocent of complicity in the sugar scandal may find himself adjudged guilty of public opinion.

There is no doubt about the belief of many democratic senators in protection—for themselves and the sugar trust.

The receivership and assignee business continue to hold their own as thriving American industries.

The man who believes that rent should be abolished never makes a desirable tenant.

Penneyer had sense enough not to explain the result in Oregon.

The Beloit Senior Concert.

The Senior concert of Beloit college will be held at the Beloit Opera House next Tuesday evening. An attempt has been made to make this concert an Alumni concert, especially in hopes of bringing the Alumni in closer touch with the annual event of college life.

Consequently the concert will be novel in that the College Glee club and the Mandolin club will have a principal part on the program. Old rollicking, college songs will be sung in abundance, which will at once revive memories of college days now past, and prove an enlivening feature of the evenings program. The lady soloist of the evening will be Mrs. Generva Bishop of Chicago.

Excursion to Milwaukee.

For the trotting meeting June 25th.

to 28th, the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway will sell round trip excursion tickets to Milwaukee at a fare and a third good to return until June 30th.

WIFE AGREED TO HIS BURIAL HERE

Mrs. J. B. Cummings Relatives Make an Explanation of Their Action.

Relatives of J. B. Cummings, who hurried Mrs. Cummings away without allowing her to be present at the burial of her husband in this city are trying to hush the story. In their behalf the Milwaukee Sentinel says:

"The burial at Janesville was for purely family reasons with the consent and approval of the wife. The gentleman referred to as the family lawyer acted as a considerate friend of the family only at their request and without fee. All expenses of the burial were paid by the family, including the price of the cemetery lot, which he deeded to the wife. The interment was explicitly understood to be temporary and re-interment is intended at such place as the wife may at any time select."

Janesville Pythians who "roasted" the family lawyer so vigorously before he consented to pay for the lot, might give a few details in the case themselves should they see fit.

Balloon Ascension Up the River.

There will be a grand balloon ascension at Mayflower Park, Sunday, June 17. Captain Mons Leonard will make the ascension in his mammoth balloon "Napoleon," and with the aid of his parachute will drop from the enormous height of one mile. The Mayflower will make a trip ever hour after 2 o'clock, and the Janesville Cornet band will be in attendance.

A Two Days' Sale

A sale of French gingham and Toile Du Nord will commence at Bort, Bailey & Co's. Monday morning. Every lady in the city knows what these goods are, and as they have always been sold at 25 cents a yard they are sure to go in a hurry at 5 cents a yard.

Free Excursion.

The Columbia Improvement Company, of Janesville, Wis., will give their free excursion June 22. A free ride and a free lot. Call on them or write for particulars.

NO CONTEST MADE ON SCHOOL BONDS.

INJUNCTION PROCEEDINGS ARE ABANDONED.

First District Congressional Convention Called For July 24, Racine Being the Place of Meeting—Circus Car in Town—Teachers at Summer School—Brief Local Notes.

THERE will be no attempt to prevent the issue of high school bonds, after all. It had been intended to begin injunction proceedings in the circuit court, B. B. Eldredge representing the petitioners. Since then those interested have taken a different view of the matter. In answer to a question Mr.
Eldredge said to-day: "For reasons in which the public have no interest, the work in the school bonds proceeding for injunction, has so far as I am concerned, ceased."

FARMER McCARTY's base ball team were beaten clear out of sight at Edgerton yesterday afternoon. "The Edgerton boys ran in a University round our necks," said one of McCarty's players. The Edgerton boys think they could beat the Athletics.

To assist many to a clearer conception of the meaning of "Ethical Cul-opment of the Ethical Movement," as was announced.

down the last scarlet fever card this

HAD NEITHER HOME NOR RELATIVES.

MRS. CASPERY, OF THIS CITY,
DIES IN AURORA.

She Formerly Owned a Restaurant on Franklin Street, But the Death of Her Husband and Sickness of Her Children Left Her Bereft of Means.

In the death of Mrs. Alex. Caspery, of this city, Coroner Putnam, of Aurora, had one of the most pitiful cases he has ever been called upon to investigate. Mrs. Caspery has been proprietor of the little restaurant on Franklin street back of Sherer's drug store. Her husband died and she was left to shift for herself with two little girls. Of late she has been selling corsets. Monday she engaged a room in Eichelberger's boarding house.
Tuesday morning she did not get up until about ten o'clock. Therefore when the morning passed Wednesday she did not appear, little was thought of it. Twice during the forenoon the little girls came down stairs and reported their mother was still asleep. Finally about 1 o'clock, Mrs.
Eichelberger lay down in a room directly under the stranger's room. She heard the children crying and it occurred to her that something might be the matter. She went up to see and found the woman dead.

Her Children Her Only Comfort.

Mrs. Caspery was very fond of her children and kept them with her continually. She took them with her, the younger in a baby carriage, on her canvassing trips. Some time ago the children got scarlet fever and the woman got behind in her payments.
When she went away she owed $6.00 and left her trunk and all her clothing except what she had on, until she could earn some money and send for it. She had complained of being troubled with her heart.

While in the Eichelberger house, the woman paid for her room and fed the children on stuff from the bakery. She was evidently well educated and had seen better days. The children were taken to the orphanage until their relatives can be found. They are unusually bright, pretty little girls.

The verdict of the jury was that death resulted from heart disease.

NO ROOM FOR A NEW DEPOT.

C. & N. W. Officials Willing To Build If They Can Get a Site.

Men who have recently talked with leading railroad officials in Chicago, say that the Northwestern company is ready and willing to build a handsome passenger depot in Janesville just as soon as they can obtain a proper site. Should the city or property owners consent to the condemnation of that part of Wall street which crosses the railway tracks, so that a depot and platform could be constructed from Academy street to the "five points," the company will immediately build. The officials insist that they must have room for a depot that will accommodate their largest trains.

WILL GIVE A CONCERT PICNIC.

Concordia Society Plans a Good Time on June 24.

Concordia Society will give a Sunday picnic on Sunday, June 24, at Crystal Springs. Smith's full orchestra will play concert music from 11
a. m. until late in the afternoon.
There will also be chorus singing by the society and games of various kinds will be indulged in. Also a prize shoot for a colored sheep. Both the Columbia and Enterprise will carry passengers. The first boat will leave at 10 a. m., and every half hour thereafter. The public is invited and a day of recreation promised.

METHODISTS WILL EQUIP A TENT

Janesville District Lends Aid to Out Door
Evangelistic Work.

Methodists of the Janesville district will put an evangelistic tent and perhaps two on the road as soon as possible. One tent will be ready for its circuit in about two weeks. Just in what direction it will move has not yet been decided. That will depend entirely upon whether or no some one be secured to go with the tent, and take charge of the services.

BEYOND THE DARK RIVER

Howard C. Mosher.

Rev. J. D. Cole of the First Methodist church, conducted the services at the funeral of Howard C. Mosher last evening, being assisted in the song service by Mr. and Mrs. Archie Crawford, and Mrs. Arnold. The remains were buried in Oak Hill, the pall bearers being H. W. Bliss, John Block, I. E. Campbell, John Jessups,
C. F. Smith and F. J. Coferon.

Funeral of Mrs. Elizabeth Sykes.

The remains of Mrs. Elizabeth Sykes, wife of James Sykes, were buried in Oak Hill this afternoon. Funeral services were held at the family home in Spring Valley Corners this morning, the funeral party coming to the city by carriage, arriving here between 2 and 3 o'clock.

Sure Death to Insects

No more moths, no more bedbugs, no more roaches, no more ants. We have a sure killer for any of the above. It comes in liquid form in bottles and if sprinkled on any of the above will kill instantly. We have no hesitancy in recommending it in the highest of terms, and if it does not act exactly as we say, will refund the money. Will kill while you are looking.

CAN'T MAKE CITIES PAY $50 A LICENSE.

COURT RULES AGAINST THE COUNTY BOARD.

Attempt of Supervisors To Compel All the Cities in the County to Pay Fifty Dollars of Each Saloon
License Into the County Poor Fund, Fails.

Janesville, Beloit and Edgerton cannot be compelled to pay the county fifty dollars for each saloon license granted.

So Judge Bennett decided today in the case of Rock county against the city of Edgerton. The county brought suit against the City of Edgerton to compel the payment of $50 on each liquor license granted by the Edgerton council. The defendant put in a demurrer, alleging the law to be unconstitutional and the demurrer was sustained. City Attorney Towne and Mayor Heddles were in court as representatives of Edgerton.

Had the board succeeded in its suit against Edgerton, the other cities in the county also were to have been compelled to pay $50 of each saloon license into the county poor fund.
The law under which suit was begun applies only to Rock county.

"That does not decide the case,"
said District Attorney Wheeler to a Gazette reporter. "The case will be taken to the supreme court, as I am directed to do so by the county board."

Attorney J. L. Mahoney was allowed $90 for his services in defending Edwin Burt, convicted of horse stealing.
The report of Receiver Bemis, of the H. A. Doty Power & Light Co., was confirmed.

James Prien, the forger, withdrew his plea of not guilty and pleaded guilty, whereupon the judge sentenced him to hard labor in Waupun for one year, the first day of his confinement to be solitary.

Odd Attack in a Natural Place.
"I see a funny account of milk sickness out in the eastern part of the state," said Damascus.
"What are the points?"
"Oh, a man had it very badly, and finally it attacked him in both feet."
"Well, what is there funny in that?"
"Nothing at first glance. But toward the close of the article the reporter stated that the man had always worn pumps on his feet. So you see it was quite natural that the milk sickness should strike him there."—Toledo Blade.

Wished He Was There.
He had just eaten of her biscuits for the first time, and was pensive.
"Darling," asked the bride, with a joyous smile, "of what were you thinking?"
"I was thinking," he said, slowly, "of Samoa."
"It must be a beautiful place," she said, "but why Samoa?"
There was a far-away look in his eyes as he murmured:

A YOUNG GIRL'S FORTUNE.

AN INTERESTING SKETCH.
Nothing appeals so strongly to a mother's affection as her daughter just budding into womanhood. Following is an instance: "Our daughter, Blanche, now 15 years of age, had been terribly afflicted with nervousness, and had lost the entire use of her right arm. She was in such a condition that we had to keep her from school and abandon her music lessons. In fact, we feared St. Vitus dance, and are positive but for an invaluable remedy she would have had terrible affliction. We had employed physicians, but she received no benefit from them. The first of last August she weighed but 75 pounds, and although she had taken only three bottles of Nervine she now weighs 105 pounds; her nervousness and symptoms of St. Vitus dance are entirely gone, she attends school regularly, and studies with comfort and ease. She has recovered complete use of her arm, her appetite is splendid, and money could procure for our daughter the health Dr. Miles' Nervine has brought her."
When my brother recommended the remedy I had no faith in patent medicines, and would not listen to him, but as a last resort he sent a bottle, we began giving it to Blanche, and the effect was almost immediate."—Mrs. R. I. Bullock, Brighton, N. Y.

That Shaw

Will become the property of some popular young lady within the next four weeks.

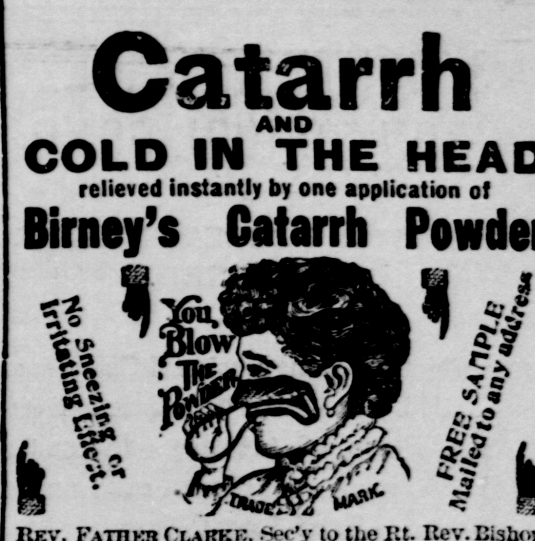

We do not dare to predict who will get it, but a "dark horse" is talked of and the ballots will come in with a rush within the next three weeks, therefore those interested want to redouble their energies so that their particular favorite will not be behind in this popular contest.

A Word About the Shaw Piano

The first pianos made by the company were placed on the market less than five years ago. Instantly the trade recognized their merits and put in bids for territory until at this time these instruments can be seen almost everywhere. To be able to build such a good business in so short a time there must be great policy behind the house. The policy of the Shaw Piano Company, is first to build a good instrument, second, to advertise it largely and artistically. The first part of the policy, to build a good instrument, is amply testified to by the favor they have met with both from dealer and artist.

The Shaw Piano is strictly a high grade first-class instrument, one that the purchasing public can have every confidence in. Messrs. S. C. Burnham & Co., of our city have for years been representing other first-class pianos but have been won by the construction, tone and quality of this new aspirant for honors so that today they are bending all their energies in favor of the Matchless Shaw, as it is termed. With no remorse of conscience they claim it is the finest musical instrument in the piano line they have ever represented.

Judging from the above account of this wonderful piano is it any wonder that the contest now going on is attracting universal attention. Rally round your favorite lady, boys. See that she becomes the happy possessor of a SHAW.

Catarrh
AND COLD IN THE HEAD
relieved instantly by one application of Birney's Catarrh Powder
REV. FATHER CLARKE, Sec'y to the Rt. Rev. Bishop of Columbus, Ohio, writes:
"Catarrh—I cannot say enough for your Powder. It has cured me of an aggravated attack of catarrh when nothing else could help me. Am delighted with it. All my friends to whom I administered samples are quite enthusiastic as to it. The great states speak most encouragingly of their use of it in the Hospital under their care. I will do anything to speak a good word for the remedy to help others who are suffering."
M. E. FERTHSON, Custodian, U. S. Appraiser's Stores, Chicago, writes:
"Catarrh—Being almost entirely deaf for a number of years, and getting no relief from many so-called cures which I tried, was induced by a friend to try Dr. Birney's Catarrh Powder in my deafness. Have recovered my hearing entirely, so that I can now hear a watch tick plainly, it being held 18 inches from my ear. I look upon it as a positive cure for deafness and have recommended its use to many of my friends and can say I have never heard of a case where it has failed to relieve."

TELLING STORIES

I know of a boy that's sleepy.
I can tell it by the nodding head
And the eyes that cannot stay open
While the good night prayer is said.
And the whispered "Tell a story."
Said in such a drowsy way,
Makes me hear the bells of Dreamland,
That ring at close of day.

So you want a story, darling!
What shall the story be?
Of Little Boy Blue in the haystack
And the sheep he fails to see
As they nibble the meadow clover
While the cows are in the corn?
Oh, Little Boy Blue, wake up, wake up,
For the farmer blows his horn.

Or shall it be the story
Of Little Boopie I tell
And the sheep he lost and mourned for
As if awful fate befell?
But there was no need of sorrow,
For the pet that went astray,
Since, left alone, he came back home
In his own good time and way.

Oh, the pigs that went to market
That's the tale for me to tell.
The great big pig and the little pigs
And the wee, wee pig as well.
Here's the big pig—what a beauty!
But not half as cunning as he
As this little tot of a baby pig
That can only say "Woo wee!"

Just look at the baby, bless him!
The little rogue's fast asleep.
I might have stopped telling stories
When I got to Little Boopie.
Oh, little one, how I love you!
You are so dear, so fair!
Here's a good night kiss, my baby.
God have you in his care!

THAT STOUT MAN.

In the city of Brussels a great deal of very pretty lace is exposed for sale. English women admire this lace and buy it. If they go straight from Belgium to England, they can take it home without having to pay any duty, but if they pass through France they have to pay on all their new Brussels lace at the French custom house. And many English women pass through France on their way from Belgium to England, because they prefer the short passage from Calais to Dover to the longer one from Ostend.

The Misses Wylie were charming, middle aged ladies, fond of travel, fond of dress, fond of lace and very bad sailors. They had been excursioning in Germany, had come down the Rhine and had spent a week in Brussels. More attractive than the field of Waterloo and more fascinating than the Musee Wiertz was the Galerie St. Hubert. Miss Melissa Wylie could not resist the white Brussels lace; Miss Annora Wylie could not resist the black. Each of the ladies bought; led on by the tempter, in the shape of a seductive shop woman, the Misses Wylie bought lace fichus, lace collarettes, lace by the meter. Day by day they added to their stock.

At length it was necessary to make for England and to pass through that dreadful France with its protective duties. Then they realized their position. How about the lace?

"We cannot conscientiously say," remarked Miss Melissa, "that we have rien a declarer (nothing to declare) because this lace is dutiable."

"And we dare not risk packing it," returned Miss Annora, "because they might take it into their heads to examine our boxes."

"How can we get it through?" mused the elder sister.

"We must get it through!" declared the younger sister.

Presently Annora exclaimed: "I have it! We will wear it! No duty is paid on what one is wearing."

"Yes, yes," said Melissa, "but how can we wear it? The white will get soiled and the black torn in traveling. Besides, if it looks unnatural, as it would on our dresses and mantles, the officials will be sure to notice it."

"It would not look unnatural on our bonnets," said Annora.

They set to work to decorate their bonnets with the lace. They mingled white and black, fichu and founce, in the most skillful manner, and though the bonnets looked somewhat overdone, yet they carried the lace, and it was probable that the male eyes of the custom house officials would not notice anything abnormal.

The Misses Wylie rejoiced in their cleverness. They sat in the train on their way to France with clear consciences and light hearts. They had rien a declarer—nothing dutiable. In the compartment with them was only one other passenger, a stout man of good humored aspect, evidently, from his extreme flabby stoutness and his extreme good humor, a middle class German. Now, Germans who understand English are very sociable with their English fellow travelers. As this German did not address the Misses Wylie, they felt sure that he did not understand English, and they talked freely to each other.

"I suppose," said Melissa, "that my bonnet looks all right? It does not strike the eyes as being too much trimmed, eh, Annora?"

"Well," said Annora, laughing, "it is too much trimmed for good taste, but then on this occasion you have had taste. What about mine?"

"Oh, quite artistic, a study in black and white," as the artists say.

The ladies laughed together, full of glee at their coming triumph over the custom house officers. The German wore the fatuous grin affected by people who listen to a language which they do not understand.

came up to them and said, in very fair English, "The ladies are fond of lace?" "Their hearts sank within them. "Rather," they conceded.

"And to carry it on the bonnet is a convenient manner of avoiding the duty."

They were undone! "But we are wearing it!" screeched Annora. Melissa panted.

"Mesdames, I admire your ingenuity, but such an amount of new lace cannot be passed even on your bonnets. Two, three, five meters," he went on, measuring the unlucky lace with his eye, "fichu, founce, etc. So many francs or I confiscate it."

"En voiture, s'il vous plait!" was heard.

The sum demanded by the officer added to what they had paid in purchase would have made the lace the dearest that ever was bought. They tore off their bonnets, pulled out innumerable pins, set free the fichus, founces, etc., put them into the officer's hands and ran to their seats. Out of breath and out of pocket, they were most unhappy. Successful cheating is one thing, but unsuccessful cheating is another and causes sharp pangs of conscience.

"Too bad!" cried Melissa as the train moved on. "We were entitled to what we wore."

"It was that German," said Annora. "He understood English. He heard what we said. He told the official. Oh, a man may grin and grin and be a villain!"

They groaned over their misfortune. The first time the train stopped the villain entered their compartment, still grinning. They glared at him, but he still grinned. They took refuge in silence.

He began to speak: "Ladies," he said in Londonese English, "I was very sorry to have to incur your displeasure, but I felt that it was my duty to report you at the douane. You had innocently told me all about the lace on your bonnets, and for the credit of our country, for the sake of English honesty, I was constrained to point out your bonnets to that official. Can you forgive me?"

"No," said Annora.

But Melissa thought that, notwithstanding his wicked cruelty, there was something very pleasant in his smile.

"I entreat your forgiveness, ladies; more, I humbly ask a favor."

"Sir?" exclaimed Annora.

"Miss Wylie, Miss Annora Wylie"—the presuming wretch had seen their names on their luggage, even their Christian names—"you will confer a great favor on me if you will tell me your address."

Annora reddened; Melissa blushed. Perhaps he was ashamed of the cruel part he had played and was about to offer an apology; perhaps their brave and gentle endurance of misfortune had touched him; perhaps their charms had so won upon him that he wished to see more of them, with a view to their suppositions broke off rapidly.

Annora looked at Melissa, and Melissa looked at Annora. Then the elder sister spoke. "We live at 113 Angelina gardens, Edwin square, South Kensington, S. W."

The stranger made a note of the address. Melissa was on the point of asking his name when he said abruptly, "You shall hear from me." Then he discoursed on the country through which they were passing, after which he buried himself in a Figaro and talked no more.

At the next stoppage he said a brusque "Good morning, ladies," and left the compartment, and they saw no more of him.

There was a considerable flutter in the breast of Melissa, who was of a romantic turn of mind, and who could only imagine one reason why this stranger should want her address. She still believed that he was a German who spoke English remarkably well, and she had seen that he was not a gentleman; she therefore made up her mind to refuse the offer of marriage which no doubt he would shortly make.

Arrived in Angelina gardens, the Misses Wylie were occupied in arranging the household, and a couple of busy days were spent by them. On the third day after their home coming they received by the same post a parcel and a letter. Annora opened the carefully tied and sealed parcel, while Melissa read the letter. Having read it once to herself, she next read it aloud to her sister:

MESDAMES—I felt myself under a very great obligation to you the other day at Blandin. I am a very thin man, but I was swathed round with hundreds of yards of fine Brussels lace, and I thought that the best way of drawing the attention of the custom house officers from myself was to draw it to you. It was purely in self defense that I directed the raid on your bonnets. Having been the cause of the loss of your lace, I wish to make you due compensation, and I beg leave to send you some finer lace than that which you lost. I am obediently yours, YOUR STOUT FELLOW TRAVELER.

Melissa took possession of a black lace founce and Annora of a dozen yards of white lace and a lace edged handkerchief, and they quite forgave the stout German for his cruelty and for his stentorian voice.—F. Bayard Harrison in Strand Magazine.

Saved Her Pearls For Other Swine.

A short time ago a colored woman appeared at Shelbyville, Ky., and announced her intention of giving a lecture and reading at one of the colored churches. A large audience assembled to hear her, but she failed to put in an appearance, but instead sent a note saying that her principal reason for her nonappearance was found in the Bible and was that she did not believe it right to "cast pearls before swine."

Agreeable to Neighbors.

"I'll have another pound of that butter," said Mrs. Bright, "and be sure it's the same I had before."

Grocer—Ah, glad you like it!

Mrs. Bright—Yes, indeed. Three of my neighbors who have been constant borrowers have utterly neglected me since I lent them some of that butter. I have two more borrowing neighbors, you see, and they may drop in for butter any moment.—Boston Home Journal.

BOY BATHERS GIVEN WARNING

Mayor Thoroughgood Makes a Suggestion
Against Indecent Exposure

The mayor's attention having been called to the many acts of lewdness perpetrated within the city limits, especially the bathing in the river, I therefore append the amended ordinance, relating to this matter, and will instruct the police to keep strict watch and arrest all persons who improperly expose themselves while bathing or otherwise transgress the provisions of the ordinance. The mayor hopes this warning will be sufficient to put a stop to the indecencies practiced by many while bathing in the river. He will consider it a favor if the steamboat captain or other individuals will furnish information concerning any breach. Section 4 of an ordinance entitled "an ordinance to prevent disorderly practices" as amended reads:

"No person shall frequent or resort to any house of ill-fame within said city for the purpose of prostitution or lewdness, or do any lewd or lascivious or obscene act in any street or public place, or within the sight of any person, or use any profane or obscene language in any street or public place, or within hearing of any person."

JOHN THOROUGHGOOD, Mayor.
